

Call for Research Proposals and Working Papers
The 22nd Accounting History Symposium

Wednesday, 27 November 2024

Format: online

Time: 6.30 pm- 9.30 pm, AEDT- Melbourne time

(7:30 am- 10:30 am, GMT - London time)

Following the tremendous success of the 20th Accounting History Symposium, held virtually at the end of 2023, and the 21st Accounting History Symposium, conducted in person earlier this year before the 2024 AFAANZ conference, the Accounting History Special Interest Group (AHSIG) is delighted to announce our second symposium of 2024. The 22nd Accounting History Symposium is scheduled to take place virtually on Wednesday, November 27, 2024.

This year, we are excited to integrate our AFAANZ Insight Series session with the 22nd Accounting History Symposium. We are privileged to welcome Professor Stephen Walker as our keynote speaker. He will present his paper titled "Managing a Shower of Silver: Accounting, Control, and Audit at the Great Exhibition, 1851," which has been recognized as a highly recommended paper by the AFAANZ Accounting History community.

In addition to our esteemed guest speaker, we invite individuals interested in presenting their planned or ongoing research projects to submit a research proposal or working paper. We recommend that research proposals be approximately three pages in length, single-spaced, and include the following information:

1. Project (working) title
2. Background (or scenario for investigation)
3. Main research objective in one sentence
4. Concise key research question(s)
5. Research methodology
6. Period selection
7. Limitations of the study
8. Expected (original) contribution.

The due date for submission of research proposals is Sunday, 27th October 2024. The proposals should be sent to acchis.sig@gmail.com (please also copy in maryam.safari@rmit.edu.au and lina.xu@rmit.edu.au).

In addition to the presentations of research proposals relating to accounting history, a panel of scholars will be in attendance, discussing and/or providing feedback on the presentations of the participants. Registration for this event is free of charge.

We look forward to your participation at the 22nd Accounting History Symposium.

Kind regards,

Dr Maryam Safari and Dr Lina Xu

The 22nd Accounting History Symposium, Convenor and Deputy Convenor
