January 10-12, 2025
Wuhan, China

CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT

To engage with contemporary global issues and promote China-related accounting and finance research, the School of Finance & the Innovation and Talent Base for Digital Technology and Finance at Zhongnan University of Economics and Law, in conjunction with the Accounting and Finance (AF), invite submissions of academic papers for the 2025 (9th) China Accounting and Finance Conference (CAFC 2025). This conference offers the possibility of publication in the China Issue of Accounting and Finance (Volume 65, Issue 5), focusing on New Developments in Chinese Capital Markets. This event serves as a premier academic platform where scholars and practitioners worldwide can exchange and share their research on crucial accounting and finance topics related to China and the global landscape.

CONFERENCE DATES

January 10-12, 2025 (January 10 is the registration day).

PAPER SUBMISSION DEADLINE

November 4, 2024.

TOPICS

The conference organizers invite submissions of papers on all aspects of accounting and finance. Both theoretical and empirical papers are welcome. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to: Auditing, Banking, Big Data, Capital Markets, Corporate Finance, Corporate Governance, CSR and ESG, Derivatives, Environmental Finance, Financial Accounting, Financial System, FinTech and AI, Investments, Management Accounting, and Portfolio Management, etc.

The 2025 China Issue aims to publish original, significant, and visionary papers contributing to the application of new theories and techniques in these areas. High-quality papers presented at the conference will be considered for publication in the China Issue of Accounting and Finance (Volume 65, Issue 5).
