Organizers:

The Impact Finance Hub at Deakin University, Australia

In partnership with the Finance for Good research unit at NEOMA Business School, France

We are pleased to announce the third edition of the Conference on Sustainable Finance, which will take place on May 29, 2025, at Deakin University's Burwood Campus in Melbourne, Australia. The conference will feature academic sessions covering the latest advances in sustainable finance, alongside a professional panel discussion with leading industry experts from various sectors, offering diverse perspectives and insights.

We welcome submissions of high-quality research papers in all areas of sustainable finance, including (but not limited to) the following topics:

- Socially Responsible Investing (SRI), ESG investing, and impact investing
- Green finance and climate finance
- Responsible banking and lending
- Corporate social responsibility and corporate philanthropy
- Big data, FinTech, and financial innovation for sustainability
- Regulation, disclosure, standardization, and measurement issues related to sustainable finance

The conference will primarily be held in-person for selected papers at Deakin University. We encourage onsite attendance for participants, but can accommodate online attendance if necessary. To recognize excellence in research, we are pleased to announce the introduction of the Deakin-Neoma Best Paper Award this year, with a prize of $1000 AUD.
